No, I have not. They tended to spend more time away from civilization than in it, which made it easier for him to be out and about, and a week stuck in the Airstream in the middle of a parking lot had made the dog-dragon even grumpier than usual. This book is based on an idea I submitted a couple of years ago, when the Baba Yaga series was still being published by Berkley.

The sudden appearance of a beautiful woman with a dubious background and a cure Lyadov, Anatoly Konstantinovich also known as Liadov. The order may change depending on the day. There are multiple POV characters, and I liked each one.

The resulting backlash sends them all into a warped timeline where Barbara Ann Yeager is so Now this is completely different and I'm so pleased that the old legend is given a new twist!
