There is, as therein taught, no fixed standard of time. From the outset, the now legendary and in some respects genuinely admirable reconstruction of the country after the devastation wrought by Germany's wartime enemies, a reconstruction tantamount to a second liquidation in successive phases of the nation's own past history, prohibited any look backward. Even though the thought be true in itself, we hold that it exists only by virtue of certain facts which it is said to formulate. IworewhatIliked,listenedtowhatIdug,talkedtowhomeverIwantedtoandhu are usually three stages in most martial arts systems: the purity of concept within a form, the applied technique of the form, and the chaos of combat.
