Fred Kaplan thinks that Isabel's novel is a "nightmare":

"Behind the sophisticated portrayal of mores and personality ... the world of Portrait is a threatening, often deathly world of repression and annihilation, where no one is happy, no one is saved. Gossip What?

Gorra prefers the New York edition of Portrait because he finds it more erotic, more knowing, and more physical.

However, Isabel takes the surprising step of turning him down, even though she likes him very much as a person. He also would like to marry Isabel.
