Jesus tempted in the desert in Luke 4. For the joy that was set before him he endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat at the right hand of the throne of God Not everything that prevents us from running the race that is set before us is a sin, there are many things that can hinder us in running our race with patience. What does the Bible say about the sales of anointing oil and holy water?

Of these an nothing remains: it is overcome by the powerful fire. It means, though, that if it is a choice of either suffering for Jesus' sake or denying Him and falling from our commitment, the right choice is suffering. When the Lord says that man should eat bread with groaning, here what are you now doing, who desires to live with joy? It is our guide as to how we should fight and with what weapons. It does take some time. You ought to give praises in the church to the omnipotent One. This thinking is even in the church.
