I told myself, You'll always have your brain, but you won't always have your body. We all want to be perfect. Boys scare her, her parents' divorce saddens her, and she has no idea how to cope with school bullies. Ballet is a lifestyle, not a job. Watching my body go back to the size it had been during the darkest period of my life—but knowing it was happening for such a beautiful reason—was unexpectedly healing. More Details
