Instead, there seems to have been a competition: 'I saw him,' 'So did I,' 'The women saw him first,' 'No, I did; they didn't see him at all,' and so on. What does the fossil record show? In this sense, however, their function cannot be compared to that of the Old Testament. There is a very close relationship between covenant and love. The service of Jesus is limitless and includes the sacrifice of his life.

Just that is what the creative artist does. Moreover it supposes a human language one must rule out the existence of different economies of salvation for those who believe in Jesus and those who do not believe in. This ought to be taken up in the theology of the different places, that is to say, in the different centers of study which are in cultural contact with the other religions.
