Preston and Child revive characters and settings from earlier novels, often a red flag that authorial imagination is tiring; but in The Cabinet of Curiosities case, all comes together with zing. On today's tour through the Cabinet, we meet two unique individuals. He succeeded, and survives into the late 20th century, until he himself is killed by the copycat killer, revealed to be Anthony Fairhaven, who tracked Enoch Leng to his mansion on Riverside Drive.

In the document, 'A companion to Mr. Fairhaven has been searching the mansion for the formula, and is excited when Pendergast, trying to escape, finds the entrance to a secret laboratory, where The Cabinet of Curiosities is puzzled to see a collection of toxic plants and insects, along with an esoteric collection of costumes and antique weaponry. These were cabinets in the sense of pieces of furniture, made from all imaginable exotic and expensive materials and filled with contents and ornamental details intended to reflect the entire cosmos on a miniature scale.
