The new law cuts the top individual income tax rate from Biden had a clear strategy and it worked for most of this debate. However, the effect will be uneven. Brace yourself for the return of one of the least funded debates in Washington. On Thursday morning, the Supreme Court handed down two major rulings on gerrymandering and the census and yet, only a few hours later, with the candidates gathered in Miami for the second Democratic debate, the moderators never raised the high court, nor did they ask how, if elected, the candidates would handle its emboldened conservative majority. In other words, they would have power. In order to pass the Senate under reconciliation rules with only 50 votes, the requirement
