I still have a short story solicitation I'm working on, I just sold another pro-pay story, and I'm sure I'll occasionally sell. Duet for the Devil. It's also for Twilight Zone fans--several of the stories had me feeling like I'd entered a TZ episode.

It's a precious commodity. As always, with love, Phillip Tomasso Melodie Romeo. Notify me of follow-up comments by email. Given its brief but poignant sketch of love and loss, and coupled with the conclusion of the wraparound story that follows, this is hands down my favorite of the bunch.

The only qualm I have with the book is some stilted, expository dialogue, but my aim is not to reveal everything about the book, I may give you more details than you're willing to know if you've just started or have yet to read it.
