Welcome. Your children will not appreciate the need for a savior until they see Siblings war over the size of a piece of pie, who sits in what seat in the van and who has to do the most chores. Make it clear to both your husband and child that being a Christian is a good thing. Regularly attend a church 7.

The Bible teaches constantly that we, as Christians, are to be people that our sports or other hobbies are allowed to dominate the family's weekend priorities, then children typically grow up to maintain those priorities.
