ebookl-m-montgomeryread-in A little too pat "don't judge a book by its cover" and kind of disappointing because Anne comes across as a flat, judgmental little monster. All the gushing on the back cover is amusing-'wonderful adventures Asifahusbandandwifewouldn'ttalkfor20yearsoveranargument,nomatterh too frightened to go in, lurked on the step outside. The sky was blossoming into stars above the afterglow; out to the east the moon was rising, and the sea beneath it was a thing of radiance and silver and glamour; and a little harbour boat that went sailing across it was transmuted into an elfin shallop from the coast of fairyland.
