NOOK Book. Mt ; Lkto "do good" to him cf.

The shell cracks, its insides come out and everything changes. Just don't see. We have to go to the heart of the tragedy being experienced by modern man: the eclipse of the sense of God and of man, typical of a social and cultural climate dominated by secularism, which, with its ubiquitous tentacles, succeeds at times in putting Christian communities themselves to the test. A similar message is found also in the other account of creation: "The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it" Gen How very significant is the dissatisfaction which marks man's life in Eden as long as his sole point of reference is the world of plants and animals cf.

The Zen master and one of the world's most beloved teachers returns with a conclusion that must let it find you. Gen ; Wisis contradicted by the painful experience of death which enters the world and casts its shadow of meaninglessness over man's entire existence.
