View 1 comment. There are times when my discouragement just makes me want to call it quits. Me, I prefer real books. You could discuss ways of coping, and some of them might have been through some important read. Your cart looks like there are no items in. When you relate well to other people, express your needs, and talk about issues that bother you, you deal with potential anger proactively. See if it's possible to carry that relaxed feeling into whatever you do. One setback can ruin my whole day ... to say nothing of the days of those who have to put up with me. And as My Anger Workbook read it, I found myself nodding in agreement to some of the suggestions and insights offered.
